REVIEW COURSES

Courses meet for six weeks either on a Saturday or a Thursday night for three hours to review the necessary skills for the exam. The instruction time is divided so as to cover all areas of the test. The registration fee includes textbooks and other study materials.

Two sessions of each prep course will be offered during the Spring '06 semester. We require you to pre-register for the review course. Due to demand, our policy is "first come, first served" and you will be registered only after payment is received. Registration closes at noon the day before the course starts.

LSAT Prep Courses

This comprehensive and structured six-week prep course is designed to teach students specific LSAT concepts and techniques, offering rigorous practice and homework assignments, and providing a thorough understanding of the most successful test-taking strategies.

Each student will receive an official LSAT publication textbook including powerful test prep strategies, quizzes, upper quartile problems, complete tests with explained answers, and four official LSAT tests. Separate diagnostic tests will be administered under proctored conditions. All tests will be actual LSAT tests from recent years. A nationally certified master LSAT teacher with over 12 years of test-prep experience and over 40 LSAT courses taught will be the instructor.
