

CAROL CIRULLI LANHAM

EDUCATION

PhD - Public Policy and Political Economy

University of Texas at Dallas

Master of Science - Applied Sociology

University of Texas at Dallas

Master of Science - Business Administration

Boston University

Bachelor of Arts - Economics and Government

University of Texas at Austin

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Senior Lecturer, Sociology - University of Texas at Dallas – 2011-present.

Courses include Classical Social Theory, Gender Roles, Sociology of the Family and a special topics course on Alcohol, Drugs and Society. Also teach two online courses: Deviance and Social Issues.

Graduate Teaching Assistant - University of Texas at Dallas – 2009-2011.

Responsibilities included development of lectures, general classroom duties and grading for the Department of Sociology.

PUBLICATIONS

Peer-Reviewed Articles:

Lanham, Carol Cirulli and J. Alejandro Tirado. (2011). "Lessons in Sobriety: An exploratory study of graduate outcomes at a recovery high school." Journal of Groups in Addiction & Recovery, 6 (3), 245-263.

PRESENTATIONS/CONFERENCE PARTICIPATION:

Lanham, Carol Cirulli. (March 2011). Lessons in Sobriety: An exploratory study of graduate outcomes at a recovery high school. Southwestern Social Science Association, Las Vegas, NV.

Lanham, Carol Cirulli. (August 2011). Results of Random Drug Testing at a Recovery High School. Poster presentation at the American Sociological Association, Las Vegas, NV.

Lanham, Carol Cirulli (April 2012). Classroom Wikis: A Digital Forum for Teaching and Learning Sociology. Western Social Science Association, Houston, TX.

Lanham, Carol Cirulli (April 2012). The Use of Social Media Networks to Boost Response Rates in Substance Abuse Outcome Studies. Western Social Science Association, Houston, TX.

OTHER PUBLICATIONS

Economics: Principles and Policy

Edited and revised this college textbook co-authored by Alan S. Blinder, former vice chairman of the Federal Reserve.

Understanding Management

Wrote all the corporate case studies for this college-level management book by Richard L. Daft. Also co-authored the video instructor's manual to accompany the book.

Managing Organizations in an Era of Change

Wrote all the corporate case studies in this college-level management book by Gary Dessler. Also co-authored the study guide to accompany the book.

Operations Management: Competing in a Changing Environment

Co-authored the study guide to accompany this college-level textbook by Byron J. Finch & Richard Luebbe.