

CURRICULUM VITAE

May 2013

Dr. Wayne M. Gearey Jr.
Email: Wxg130930@utdallas.edu

Academic Background

BA: University of Calgary (Canada), 1991, Political Science Major.

Post Graduate Certificate, 2001, GIS (Canada), Simon Fraser University

MSc: University of Salford (UK), 2003, Degree in Economic Geography and GIS.

PhD: Coventry University (UK), 2006, Doctor of Philosophy

Professional Development

Certificate of Mastery, Business Process Reengineering Certification Program (USA). Dr. Hammer (MIT) and Company. Boston 2002

Independent technical course work

ESRI
FME
Autodesk
Alteryx
MapInfo

Employment History

2009-2013: Jones Lang LaSalle (Dallas, TX) – Senior Vice President & Global Location Intelligence Officer

2007-2009: The Staubach Company (Dallas, TX) – Vice President/ Director of Research

2002-2003: The City of Burnaby (Burnaby, Canada) – City Planning

Publications

Nicole Schaefer-McDaniel, Margaret O'Brien Caughy, Patricia O'Campo, Wayne Gearey, 31 October 2009: Examining methodological details of neighbourhood observations and the relationship to health: A literature review; Social Science & Medicine.

Trodd, N. and Gearey, W. (2006): Socially Constructed Output Areas for Neighbourhood Analysis, Proceedings of the 25th Urban Data Management Symposium, Aalborg, Denmark.

Gearey, W., M. Trodd and C. Hertzman (2005): PPGIS in zone design for community development, Proceedings of the 13th Annual Conference of GIS Research UK, Glasgow, 440-447.

Recent Presentations

- Association of Defense Communities – Invited speaker – (Monterey) 2012
- ESRI Business Conference, Key Note Speaker (San Diego) 2012
- Where Business Conference, Speaker (Chicago) 2012

Awards

- Wayne has been the recipient of the Jones Lang LaSalle da Vinci award for innovation 3 times.

Personal Information

- Volunteer Greenhill School
- Board Member - School of Economic, Political and Policy Science - University of Texas at Dallas (2012/13)
- Appointed Adjunct Professor – School of Economic, Political and Policy Science – University of Texas at Dallas (2013)