

University Web Services

Web Publishing Policy

Introduction

These pages explain the official web publishing policy for web developers at The University of Texas at Dallas as they create, modify and maintain official websites within the university. This policy applies to all sites hosted on the UTD network. This policy will undergo periodic revision as new laws and specifications come into effect.

The policy is divided into the following sections.

Introduction :

This page.

Requirements Summary :

A checklist summary of requirements.

Applicability :

Which sites are required to follow the policy?

Accessibility | Site Maintenance | Required Links and Page Elements | Applicable Legislation and Policies :

These sections provide a more detailed explanation of the associated requirements, along with techniques for implementation.

Useful Links :

A listing of site links mentioned in the guidelines and additional sites for reference.