- Highest entering freshmen SAT scores of all public colleges in Texas
- Internationally renowned faculty
- Opportunities to take part in research begin at the undergraduate level
- Extensive student co-ops and internships
- Fast-track graduate opportunities
- Prestigious scholarships and fellowships that include the Truman, the Goldwater, the Marshall, the Javits and National Science Foundation grants
- Pre-health and pre-law graduates admitted to the nation's leading law and medical schools (well above the national average—law: 80%, medical: 70%)
