We are here to help you make informed decisions about your academic and personal preparation for law school and a legal career. We can offer guidance from your first year through the law school application process and your eventual matriculation to law school.

We offer a variety of services and programs tailored to your stage in the application process. We also have various workshops on topics of interest to pre-law students as well as speakers from throughout the legal practice spectrum. Additionally, we can meet with students in individual counseling sessions.
