

Concurrent Enrollment/System Cooperative Agreements

July 31, 1997 (revised)

Features	May 1, 1997 U.T. System Student Exchange Program	August 16, 1979 Arlington/Southwestern Medical Center/UTD	July 1979 U. T. System/Texas A&M System Joint Resolution	Concurrent Enrollment Statutes
Concurrent Enrollment:	Not applicable, is a time limited "exchange"	Required	Not required	Required
Student Level:	Upper-division (defined as 60 or more SCH) and Graduate/Professional	Silent on G/UG assume both	Graduate students only	All
Contingent On:	Approval of UG or G Exchange Program Coordinator; director of a lab; space availability	Joint or cooperative program; Instructor approval	space availability and prior approval by Graduate Dean, instructor/or lab director	enrollment in any two public institutions at the same time
Tuition:	paid to and retained by home institution	paid to home and forwarded to host	included as "all applicable fees" -- see below	Tuition (Sec. 54.062) : (1) Total tuition based on total SCH proportioned among the two institutions; (2) processed by Bursars
Fees:	"required fees" paid to home	host lab and "building use" fees paid to home and forwarded to host	"all applicable fees" paid to home and retained by home	Fees (Sec. 54.503) enrollment in two components within a system at same time
	course specific fees forwarded to host	all other host mandatory charges waived by Board of Regents	parking fees assumed to apply at host and home based on user choice	enrolled in a joint or cooperative program host student services privileges apply (i.e., ID cards, library services, etc.)	library and parking privileges "to be honored"		"all compulsory student services fees" paid to home campus; Regents may waive at host and did for 8/16/79 agreement
	parking and other "user" fees presumably paid to host	use of host student services allowed only if student elects to pay host's mandatory Student Services Fee		UTD policy has been to allow use of library and student services only if UTD compulsory student service fees are paid to UTD