Tourney With NCAA Berth On The Line

RICHARDSON, TX - The 2007 American Southwest Conference Baseball Championship Tournament gets under way this weekend (May 5-7) at the University of Texas at Dallas Baseball Complex, though the tournament has been pushed back one day due to wet grounds. The winner of the tournament is the 2007 ASC Baseball Champion and earns the conference's automatic berth into the NCAA Division III National Baseball Tournament. Texas Lutheran University (32-8-1, #8 nationally) will face The University of the Ozarks (24-19) at 11 am Saturday. The University of Texas at Dallas (31-9, #21 nationally) will host McMurry University (27-15) at approximately 3 pm Saturday. The two winners will meet at 12 noon Sunday in a winner's bracket game. The two losers will square off in an elimination contest at 9 am Sunday morning. The tournament championship game(s) begin at 1 pm Monday.

UTD Edges Mississippi To Advance To ASC Finals Before Falling To Cowboys

ABILENE, TX - The UTD men's tennis team slipped past Mississippi College, 5-4, in the Friday semifinals of the American Southwest Conference Team Championship Tournament, but fell 5-1 to the host Hardin-Simmons Cowboys Saturday afternoon. The UTD team of Kevin Yarnall and Kyle Faber picked up a crucial doubles win in a tiebreaker to claim the Friday semifinal victory, but were the only team or individual to pick up a win in the Saturday finals before the match was decided.
