

New Student Programs

We are very pleased that you are interested in The University of Texas at Dallas!

To help you get off to a good, strong start once you are admitted to UTD, New Student Programs has designed several activities specifically for you! These programs will help you enter UTD fully informed and confident about what to expect.

New Student Programs offers orientations, programs, counseling, and peer support to give new students a strong start in your university career.

Students are invited to discuss personal, social, academic, and career concerns with the Coordinator or an Orientation Team Mentor.

New Student Programs include:

- Orientations
- Comet Camp
- UTD Success Camp
- Emerging Leader Program
- Road Warriors

New Student Programs also sponsors the Parent & Family Association at UTD.

Please take the time to read through our program descriptions. If you have any questions, or if you would like to speak with one of the Orientation Team Mentors, please call 972-883-6171.

Last Updated: November 30, 2006

