

NAVIGATION	Mission Statement
Information	The mission of The University of Texas at Dallas is to provide Texas and the nation with the benefits of educational and research programs of the highest quality. These programs address the multi-dimensional needs of a dynamic, modern society driven by the development, diffusion, understanding and management of advanced technology.
News
Lab Safety
Environmental Management
Industrial Hygiene	The Department of Environmental Health and Safety(EHS) assists the university in its mission by promoting a safe and healthy environment for faculty, staff, students, and visitors. EHS serves the university community through technical and regulatory compliance assistance, informational and training programs, consulting services, environmental monitoring and testing, periodic audit of campus activities and the inspiration of a safety conscious culture.
Occupational & General Safety
Fire & Life Safety
Worker's Compensation
Forms & Manuals
Chemical Pick Up Form
RELATED UTD LINKS
Business Affairs Bulletin	1/08/07 The problem with the chemical pick up form is resolved.
UTD Police Department	1/08/07 Currently, there is a problem with the Chemical Pick Up Form on the new layout. Please use the chemical pick up form in the original layout until this problem is resolved.
UTD Career Center	12/7/06 Site content updated: Occupational & General Safety, Industrial Hygiene. Layout errors corrected. Information page updated.
EXTERNAL LINKS & RESOURCES	9/15/06 New layout undergoing compatibility testing.
FEMA
OSHA
Contact Information Phone: 972-883-4111 Fax: 972-883-(6115) Physical Address: 17919 Waterview Pkwy.WT14 Dallas, TX 75252

Last Updated on 4/25/07. For questions regarding this department's website, please contact us at x4111 . Privacy Statement
Copyright 2007 University of Texas at Dallas