

Administrative Offices

President

The President is the chief executive officer of the university and exercises broad delegated authority for campus administration.

Organizational Charts

The reporting structure of units and departments at UT Dallas.

Executive Vice President and Provost

Serving as the chief academic officer for the university, the Provost serves as deputy to the President and is responsible for the formulation and implementation of educational policy. The Provost also has a significant role in fund raising and external relations for the university.

Audit and Compliance

The Office of Audit and Compliance helps UT Dallas accomplish its mission in learning, research, and public service by bringing a systematic, disciplined approach to evaluate and improve the effectiveness of operations, and by promoting and supporting a culture of compliance and control consciousness.

Business Affairs

As the chief financial officer for the university community, the Vice President for Business Affairs has responsibility for all fiscal matters including the Budget, Controller, Procurement Management and Payroll offices. In addition, the VPBA has oversight for construction and maintenance of the facilities, safety and security of the campus, human resources as well as any auxiliary services. In his role, the VPBA is designated as the Custodian of Records and the Ethics Officer for the university.

Communications

The Office of Communications provides strategic leadership to meet the challenge of shaping the character, direction and underlying principles of institutional communications at UT Dallas and takes primary responsibility for organizing university-wide resources in the areas of communication and marketing, brand identity and positioning, internal and external communications, message content, media visibility/media relations, and crisis communication.

Development

The Office of Development supports the university's fundraising efforts, working closely with the university's deans and program directors.

Information Resources

The department of Information Resources provides information technology, equipment and services that support the university in accomplishing its research, instructional, and public service functions.

Public Affairs

The Office of Public Affairs is responsible for the coordination and oversight of the university's government and community relations, with an emphasis on state legislative affairs.

Research

The Office of the Vice President for Research enhances UT Dallas' research profile by anticipating new technology, potential collaboration partners and research opportunities for the university.

Strategic Planning and Analysis

The Office of Strategic Planning and Analysis supports the achievement of UT Dallas' mission in research, learning, teaching and public service through effective planning, institutional research and evaluation.

Student Affairs

Administered by the Vice President for Student Affairs, this office provides oversight for recruitment, admissions, financial aid, student systems and co-curricular and extra-curricular programs, services and support related to all aspects of student life.

UT System Board of Regents

The Board of Regents, the governing body for The University of Texas System, is composed of nine members who are appointed by the Governor and confirmed by the Senate. Throughout the more than 100-year history of the UT System, the Board has been composed of dedicated and distinguished Texans who have been strong advocates of excellence in academic programs, scientific inquiry, and responsible public service.