

Council of Graduate Schools

Advocacy, Research, and Innovation

Search

- Home
- About CGS
- News
- Membership
- Programs & Awards
- Meetings & Events
- Public Policy
- Research
- CGS Publications
- Media Inquiries
- Contact Us
- Employment at CGS
- PSM Biennial Meeting

View Cart

Item Search

CGS Publications

CGS Publications

CGS Publications

CGS Publications New Releases \(Member Pricing\)

Product List

Professional Master's Education: A CGS Guide to Establishing Programs (2006)

A broad and comprehensive guide to best practices, activities and processes required to create a professional master's program which draws on the experiences of participants in the CGS Professional Master's Initiative. This book provides essential advice for graduate deans, universities and faculty on the development of collaborative degrees as well as interaction with business, industry and government to devise programs that respond to regional employer needs.

Item code PROMAS

$35.00

Price

Starting from: 10 pieces $29.70
Starting from: 25 pieces $26.24
Starting from: 50 pieces $21.00
Starting from: 100 pieces $17.50
Starting from: 200 pieces $14.00

Quantity

1

add to cart