Police: The Police Department is open 24hrs a day, 7 days a week. The department is comprised of commissioned Texas Police Officers and is supplemented with non-commissioned guards. We also provide services which include: patrol, investigations, crime prevention programs, and vehicle assists. An escort service is provided on campus 24hrs a day; contact the Communications Center for an escort x2331. For information on all services we provide and other useful public information, please visit our website.

Student Right-to-Know and Campus Security Act:

In compliance with the Student Right-to-Know and Campus Security Act (the Act) 20 U.S.C. Sections 1092 (a), (e) and (f), as amended, The University of Texas at Dallas collects specified information on campus crime statistics and campus security policies. U.T. Dallas will make timely reports to the campus community on crimes considered to be a threat to students and employees and reported to the campus police or local police agencies. Every September, the Police Department at U.T. Dallas will publish and make available the Annual Security Report. The report will be available electronically (<http://www.utdallas.edu/police/stats.html>), or a pamphlet may be requested. The report will contain crime statistics for the previous 3 calendar years. The report will address policies and programs regarding sex-related and alcohol related issues.

Racial Profiling: The purpose of the policy is to reaffirm the University of Texas at Dallas Police Department's commitment to unbiased policing in all its encounters between officer and any person; to reinforce procedures that serve to ensure public confidence and mutual trust through the provision of services in a fair and equitable fashion; and to protect our officers from unwarranted accusations of misconduct when they act within the dictates of departmental policy and the law. The department shall accept complaints from any person who believes he or she has been stopped or searched based on racial, ethnic or national origin profiling. No person shall be discouraged, intimidated or coerced from filing a complaint, nor discriminated against because he or she filed such a complaint. A complaint form can be obtained at the Police Dept from the Supervisor on duty.

Decal Office: To Park a vehicle on campus, including Waterview Park, a hangtag must be purchased and properly displayed according to the instructions provided. The hangtag can be purchased at the Bursar's Office in the McDermott Library.
