

Dr. Dale Walker
School of Arts and Humanities
The University of Texas at Dallas
800 West Campbell Road, JO31, Richardson, Texas 75080-3021
Dale.Walker@utdallas.edu

Education

- PhD, Philosophy, University of Wales, Wales, United Kingdom 08/04/05.
 - Dissertation Title: Individual Development: a defense of the moral and political ideas of John Stuart Mill
- MA, Humanities, California State University-Dominguez Hills, Carson, California 05/26/00.
- LLM, International Human Rights, University of Leicester, United Kingdom 01/23/90.

Teaching Experience

- Aug 2015-present: Lecturer, University of Texas at Dallas, Richardson, Texas, USA
- Jan 2009-present: Professor of Humanities & Philosophy, Collin College, Plano, Texas, USA
- Aug 2006-May 2007: Associate Professor Humanities, Collin College, Plano, Texas, USA
- Aug 2005-July 2006: Lecturer of Philosophy, Wyggeston & Queen Elizabeth I College, Leicester, UK.
- Aug 2004-July 2005: Lecturer of Philosophy, Llandrindod Sixth Form College, Wales, UK.

Research Interests

- I am currently interested in the conditions of prisons and the rights of prisoners in the English speaking Caribbean. I am also interested in how the humanities and the arts may be used to reduce human rights violations in developing countries.