

Danqing Coldwell 丹青

Professional Artist/Designer

Qualifications:

- Extensive knowledge of traditional Chinese painting and calligraphy techniques
- Accomplished in oils, acrylics and other modern media
- Expert in many Chinese and Western craft techniques

Professional Accomplishments:

- 2016 — paintings displayed at Plano AsiaFest in Plano, Texas
- 2014 — New Texas Talet show at Craighead Green Gallery in Dallas, Texas
- 2013 — New Texas Talet show at Craighead Green Gallery in Dallas, Texas
- October 15, 2010 — Article in World Journal (Chinese language), Houston, Texas
- September 13, 2010 — Article in San Antonio Express News, San Antonio, Texas
- 2008, 2010 — Solo shows at Joan Grona Gallery in San Antonio, Texas
- 2007 — Solo show at Radius in San Antonio, Texas
- February 2000 — Biography in Jewelry Crafts Magazine
- 1999-2005 — Gallery shows in Tulsa, Oklahoma
- 1995 — Asian Contemporary Art Exhibition and other group shows, Tokyo, Japan
- 1987 — Large-scale mural titled "Tien'tan" for the Dashin train station lobby outside of Beijing, China
- 1986 — First prize at Beijing Window Design Competition and appeared in the Beijing Women's Newspaper

Work History:

- Chinese Art Instructor, Confucius Institute, University of Texas at San Antonio: 2010-2011
- Independent Artist and Instructor: 1998-present
- Design work, Tokyo, Japan: 1997
- Beijing Art and Design College Design Instructor: 1985

Education:

- Tokyo University of the Arts, Masters degree, Tokyo, Japan — 1996
- Art Department of Capitol Normal University, Beijing, China — 1990
- Beijing Design College, Beijing, China — 1984