Course & Instructor Policies

Adherence to instructions will be considered an important part of the grade. The professor's assessment of the grades is final.

Late work is not allowed after the deadline or via email submission. There will be assignment submission links provided on eLearning. Zero credits for not adhering to the deadlines. In case of family or medical emergency, which is beyond student's control, a medical report is required including of physician's information.

In email communication, please mention the course number in subject line and use UT Dallas email address. Non-UT Dallas email addresses may not get response due to them ending up in spam folders. Apart from that, please provide 3 working days' time to professor and TA to respond before emailing again. Professor and TA will email as soon as possible, however sometimes responses may take up to 3 working days.

It is student's responsibility to check for updates in eLearning. There will be series of updates throughout the semester to provide timely information and/or updates and/or reminders.

Cell phone use is not allowed during class or exam. eLearning will be used for class content. Slides and other materials will be posted after class is held. Avoid personal conversations during lectures.

Maintain academic integrity. Academic dishonesty involves the abuse and misuse of information or people to gain an undeserved academic advantage or evaluation. Common forms include:

- Cheating – using deception in the taking of tests or the preparation of written work, using unauthorized materials, copying another person's work with or without consent, or assisting another in such activities.
- Lying – falsifying, fabricating, or forging information in either written, spoken, or video presentations.
- Plagiarism – using the published writings, data, interpretations, or ideas of another without proper documentation. Plagiarism includes copying and pasting material from the internet into assignments without properly citing the source of the material.

Episodes of academic dishonesty are reported to the Vice President for Academic Affairs. The potential penalty for academic dishonesty includes a failing grade on a particular assignment, a failing grade for the entire course, or charges against the student with the appropriate disciplinary body.

Students with Disabilities

It is the policy and practice at UT Dallas to make reasonable accommodations for students with properly documented disabilities. However, written notification from the Office of Student AccessAbility (OSA) is required. If you are eligible to receive an accommodation and would like to request it for this course, please discuss it with me during office hours and allow for one-week advance notice. Students with any questions about their eligibility for receiving accommodations should contact the OSA office first.

Class Materials

The instructor may provide class materials that will be made available to all students registered for this class as they are intended to supplement the classroom experience. These materials may be downloaded during the course; however, these materials are for registered students' use only. Classroom materials may not be reproduced or shared with those not in class or uploaded to other online environments except to implement an approved Office of Student AccessAbility accommodation. Failure to comply with these University requirements is a violation of the Student Code of Conduct.

Class Attendance

Regular and punctual physical class attendance is expected (and graded). Students who fail to attend class regularly are inviting scholastic difficulty. Remote/virtual/online attendance is not counted or considered as the instruction mode is face-to-face.

Class Participation

Regular class participation is expected. Students who fail to participate in class regularly are inviting scholastic difficulty. A portion of the grade for this course is directly tied to your participation in this class. It also includes engaging in group or other activities during class that solicit your feedback on homework assignments, readings, or materials covered in the lectures. Class participation is documented by faculty. Successful participation is defined as consistently adhering to University requirements, as presented in this syllabus. Failure to comply with these University requirements is a violation of the Student Code of Conduct.

Class Recordings

Students are expected to follow appropriate University policies and maintain the security of passwords used to access recorded lectures. Unless the Office of Student AccessAbility has approved the student to record the instruction, students are expressly prohibited from recording any part of this course. Recordings may not be published, reproduced, or shared with those not in the class, or uploaded to other online environments except to implement an approved Office of Student AccessAbility accommodation. Failure to comply with these University requirements is a violation of the Student Code of Conduct.

The instructor may record meetings of this course. These recordings will be made available to all students registered for this class if the intent is to supplement the classroom experience. If the instructor or a UTD school/department/office plans any other uses for the recordings, consent of the students identifiable in the recordings is required prior to such use unless an exception is allowed by law.

Comet Creed

This creed was voted on by the UT Dallas student body in 2014. It is a standard that Comets choose to live by and encourage others to do the same:

“As a Comet, I pledge honesty, integrity, and service in all that I do.”
