Grading Scale And Grade Distribution

Your grade will be calculated according to the following scale. Please note that grades are not curved.

Percentage	Letter Grade	Grade Distribution	100pts
97-100	A+	Participation & Preparation	15%
93-96	A	10 Quizzes	20% (2% each)
90-92	A-	5 eLearning Homework	20% (4% each)
86-89	B+	Composition	10%
83-85	B	Midterm Exam (LRW): L1 – L2	10%
80-82	B-	Final Exam (LRW): L1 – L5	10%
76-79	C+	Final Oral Exam: L1 – L5	15%
73-75	C
70-72	C-
66-69	D+
63-65	D
60-62	D-
Under 60	F

A note on Incompletes: as per university policy, incomplete grades may be given, at the discretion of the instructor of record for a course, when a student has completed at least 70% of the required course material but cannot complete all requirements by the end of the semester. An incomplete course grade (grade of 'I') must be resolved completed within the time period specified by the instructor, not to exceed eight (8) weeks from the first day of the subsequent long semester. Upon completion of the required work, the symbol 'I' may be converted into a letter grade (A through F). If the grade of Incomplete is not removed by the end of the specified period, it will automatically be changed to F.

Homework: All homework must reflect your own understanding and current language ability. You may use a dictionary (paper or online) to look up individual words or short phrases, but the use of AI tools (e.g., ChatGPT), online translators (e.g., Google Translate, DeepL), or help from others—especially for translation or grammar exercises—is not allowed. Using such tools will be considered a violation of academic integrity and may result in a reduced grade or no credit. If you're unsure what is permitted, please ask your instructor before submitting the assignment.

Class participation and preparation: 15% of your final grade depends upon your participation and preparation. Since regular oral practice is essential for improving proficiency in a foreign language, daily attendance and active participation (responding when called on, group discussion and different kinds of in-class activities, etc.) are necessary for your success in Chinese class. Your instructor will evaluate your preparation and level of engagement during the semester and your grade will be 0.5pt per class period for a total of 15 possible points. During the semester, you are allowed to have 2 unexcused absences for MW/TTR class.

Level of participation and attendance	Grade
Uses Chinese often, exhibits excellent, cooperative behavior; does not arrive late or leave early.	0.5pt
Present in class, average participation, arrives late or leaves early (less than 15 minutes).	0.35pt
Present in class, yet does not participate; late arrival or early departure of 15 minutes or more.	0.1pt

Composition

作文	Choose one from two topics below: <ul style="list-style-type: none">★ 买衣服的标准: Write a composition on the following topic: What I look for when shopping for clothes: preferences and criteria.★ 我的大学生活: Write a composition about your current college life, including information such as courses you have taken in the past, courses you are currently taking, credits you need to graduate, your major, the reason you chose your major (if you do not have a major yet, what you hope to major in), your parents' influence on your choice of major if applicable, your outlook on graduate work or job prospects, the leisure life in the school, etc.

Final Oral Exam

The exam is modeled after the HSK Intermediate/Advanced level and includes three parts, totaling 30 points and lasting about 15–20 minutes:

- Read Aloud – Read five short paragraphs aloud (no re-recording).
- Picture Description – Describe and discuss a picture after preparation time.
- Answer a Question – Choose and answer one out of two given questions.

Midterm & Final eLearning Exam (Listening, Reading, Writing)

There will be two LRW exams this semester: a midterm and a final. These exams will follow the HSK 4 model. The midterm will cover Lessons 1-2, while the final will encompass Lessons 1-5. The exams will include various question types such as listening comprehension, reading comprehension, and writing tasks, based on the material covered in the corresponding lessons.

Excused Absences

The 3 cases explained below are considered authorized absences:

- ★ Absence due to participation in a sponsored activity/event: Absences due to participation in sponsored activities/events (i.e.: academic field trips, approved concert, performance, athletic event, etc.) must be approved in advance by the instructor. Also, you must obtain the appropriate documentation from the sponsoring unit for presentation to your instructor within 5 working days after the absence.
- ★ Absence for Religious Holy Days: The University of Texas at Dallas will excuse a student from class or other required activities for the observance of a religious holy day (including travel time) for a religion whose places of worship are exempt from property tax under Section 11.20, of the Texas Tax Code. Students must notify the instructor as soon as possible regarding the absence, preferably in advance of the assignment.
- ★ Absence due to illness, family emergency, etc. : Absence due to illness, death in the family, or other emergencies will be authorized ONLY if you contact your instructor immediately AND if you provide proof that the absence was unavoidable (a physician's statement, accident report, obituary, service bulletin, etc.) within 5 working days after the absence.

All other absences will be considered unauthorized.

Extra Credit: students can earn up to 3 extra points by attending the Chinese-related events at UTD, for example, the cultural activities listed at the end of this document, the lectures and/or workshop hosted by the Center for Asian Studies. If you attend the activity, please email me within three (3) days 1) the screenshot or a selfie of the workshop; 2) a short essay of 100 words about the year/ month/date/ time/ location/ host/presenter/ topic/and any other related information. Please use Chinese as much as possible when you write the essay (for example, 1311 student can use 名字/姓, etc. in Chinese; 1312 students can talk about the when/where/host/presenter, etc. in Chinese). You earn 1pt per attendance.

Policy on Written Work, Outside Help, and Generative AI

In this course, all written compositions must reflect your own current language ability and progress. Your instructor can readily recognize work that has been written by native, near-native, or advanced speakers; copied or adapted from external sources; or generated using online translation tools or generative AI (e.g., ChatGPT, Google Translate, DeepL, etc.). As a general rule, your instructor must be the first person to read your written work. Your first draft must be completed entirely on your own, without help from others, tutors, translation software, or AI tools. This ensures your instructor can assess your language development accurately and provide appropriate feedback. The only permitted assistance during the first draft is the use of a dictionary (paper or online) to look up individual words or short phrases. Translation of entire sentences or paragraphs is not allowed. If your first draft receives a low grade, you may choose to submit a second draft after receiving feedback and correction guidelines from your instructor, in order to improve your composition or written report grade. Rewriting or revising your composition is encouraged but not required. If you choose to submit a second draft, you may ask language tutors, peers, or other individuals to proofread your work and offer suggestions. However, the use of AI or machine translation tools remains prohibited for both drafts, and the final content should still reflect your own learning and understanding. Using unauthorized assistance—whether human or technological—on either draft is considered a violation of academic integrity and may result in a grade penalty or disciplinary action. If you're ever unsure about what kind of help is allowed, please ask your instructor before submitting your work.

Keeping Records

Students must keep all returned graded materials until the end of the term. In case of grade disagreement, it will be the student's responsibility to show the graded materials.

Disability Accommodation

Students who wish to request disability accommodations in this class should present the written notification to the Office of Student AccessAbility \(OSA\). Students are encouraged to submit documentation 4-6 weeks in advance, and are invited to contact the Office for a confidential discussion.

Use Of E-Learning

Use Of E-Mail

The University of Texas at Dallas recognizes the value and efficiency of communication between faculty/staff and students through electronic mail. At the same time, email raises some issues concerning security and the identity of each individual in an email exchange. The university encourages all official student email correspondence be sent only to a student's U.T. Dallas email address and that faculty and staff consider email from students official only if it originates from a UTD student account. This allows the university to maintain a high degree of confidence in the identity of all individual corresponding and the security of the transmitted information. UTD furnishes each student with a free email account that is to be used in all communication with university personnel. The Department of Information Resources at U.T. Dallas provides a method for students to have their U.T. Dallas mail forwarded to other accounts. UT Dallas Information Resources Help Desk: assist@utdallas.edu or call 972-883-2911.*

Personal Communication Devices

Unauthorized texting, use of laptops, MP3s, and other personal communication devices is prohibited without prior consent. If students are caught using any of these devices, it will be count as if they were absent for the day.

Classroom Comportment/Manners

Students should stay on task at all times, which means paying attention, being prepared to respond when called on; it does not mean talking to classmates (except during group work), texting, reading emails, daydreaming, working on assignments for other classes, etc. No exceptions.

Students at UT Dallas are expected to obey and conduct themselves in accordance with both the penal and civil statutes of the local, state and federal government and the Rules and Regulations of the Board of Regents of the University of Texas System, UT Dallas regulations and administrative rules, and to observe standards of conduct appropriate for an academic institution.
