Course Overview:

Students in Ed. 3314 are required to participate in 20 hours of Early Field Experience. You will also be required to attend the assigned orientation sessions held by the participating school districts. Failure to complete either/both of these requirements, will result in a failing grade for the class. (Exceptions: If you are currently employed as a full time teacher and /or teacher assistant, in an Accredited School, you may qualify for a waiver of this assignment. For those attempting to receive the waiver, you will need to provide written proof of employment. The decision, on whether to provide the waiver, is made by the Teacher Development Department and is final.) Whether you receive the waiver or not you will be required to participate in a written assignment concerning schools.

Students will be required to attend a School Board Meeting for a Public School. You may choose any of the area Public Schools to attend. The proof of attendance will consist of a copy of the School Board Agenda and notes to reflect your thoughts or observations concerning the meeting. If you will call area schools or get on the Web, where you will be able to find the meeting times and dates.

The course is designed to help you gain a broader historical, philosophical and sociological understanding of schools and teaching. The "Big Picture" questions that confront educators are not new and attempts to resolve them have been made for at least 150 years. You will be given an opportunity to participate in research and discussion that will attempt to address many of the current and historical dilemmas facing education. (Understanding the new legislation of "No Child Left Behind", How should schools be financed? How do we balance the regular curriculum with extra-curriculum?, How do we level the playing field for students with special needs?, How are schools to deal with the task of socializing children in a "multi-ethnic" society?, What are the appropriate roles of involvement for professionals, parents, students, politicians, and other citizens in the "School System"?)

Course Objectives:

1. Knowledge of historical and philosophical foundations of education
2. Understanding of public school governance and funding
3. Knowledge of and ability to discuss critical issues in schooling
4. Perspective from which to observe current practices
5. Participate in a "field experience" in a local public school
6. Observe a Public School Board Meeting
7. A commitment to personal and professional development

8. Understand the “TASK” of being a Professional Educator
9. To assist you in determining if; “The life of a Professional Educator is for you”.

Practices and Procedures:

1. Attendance: This is an entry-level expectation. Attendance will be taken in the first ten minutes of class. You will be expected to be in class and on time, because instruction will commence on time. The following rules will be in place: (Three absences will result in lowering your grade one letter. Five absences will result in you receiving a failing grade in the class.) THERE ARE NO EXCEPTIONS!!!
2. Participation in class: Students are expected to engage with the reading material as well as with the instructor and one another. The premise of which is that learning is not a linear process, but a reciprocal one. In such, your presence, both physical and mental, is required for you to engage and participate in the course. It is important that you leave out your opinions and deal with facts that have been garnered from the reading or from other research.
3. Written Assignments: Remember that you are college students and I will expect for you to write in a manner professional manner. ALL OUTSIDE ASSIGNMENTS ARE TO BE (T Y P E D) and On-Time.
4. Presentations: Due to the size of this class, the presentations will be done in groups. After the assignments are made, you will be expected to work together to develop the research, methods and presentation style, outside of class. Do your research and present facts to the remainder of the class. Use the presentation as a teaching experience and teach your classmates about your topic. This will be a collaborative effort; therefore your ability to work with a group becomes an important part of this work. You are encouraged to bring more than information found in the textbook to the discussion. (You are encourage to use a panel, video, interactive activity, etc. or other appropriate TEACHING method)
5. Exams: You will be expected to make a passing grade on all three exams. The material for the exams will come from three sources: Class discussion, Assigned Reading, and Presentations.
6. Presentations: Due to the size of this class, the presentations will be done in groups. After the assignments are made, you will be expected to work together to develop the research methods and presentation style outside of class. Use the presentation as a teaching experience and teach your classmates about your topic. This will be a collaborative effort; therefore, your ability to work with a group becomes an important part of this work. A rubric for evaluating the presentation will be provide.
