COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is designed to give students an overview of the political, economic, social, and cultural history of Latin America from the pre-Conquest era to the end of Independence (roughly 1821). Broadly speaking, each week's material will be presented in a chronological fashion, but within those broad chronological divisions, we will be examining material thematically. We will specifically focus on the different themes that affected the way life and society were organized during the colonial period, and how these themes were interrelated.

STUDENT LEARNING OBJECTIVES/OUTCOMES

- Students will gain an overall understand of the narrative history of Latin America from the era of conquest (roughly 1400s) to the era of independence (roughly 1820s).
  - Students will demonstrate their ability to interpret and analyze historical essays as well as primary source material.
  - Students will demonstrate their ability to process primary and secondary source material and make their own argument regarding the historical significance of that material.

ASSIGNMENTS

Class Participation: All students are expected to participate in class discussions by incorporating information from assigned readings and class lectures. Students' participation should be constructive and contribute to the overall discussion. Please consider quality as well as quantity in class discussions. Formal class discussions will take place on most Mondays. Discussions will be based on reading assignments out of the Andrien, Johnson, and Boyer books. Generally those assignments will correspond to the previous day's lecture, so you will hear a lecture over a given topic and then read one or more chapters related to that topic after hearing the basic narrative. Students should take thorough notes and use those notes, comments, etc. as the basis for class discussion.

Weekly Quizzes: At the beginning of days designated for formal class discussions, we will start with a brief open note quiz. All students are strongly encouraged to take thorough notes on the assigned readings as these notes may be consulted during the weekly quizzes. You may use the questions listed on the discussion link to our course website as a general note-taking guide. Oftentimes quiz questions will be modified versions of the questions listed on that site. NOTE: The quiz will begin promptly at the start of class time and will last for no more than 10 minutes. Students arriving late to class will not be allotted additional time to complete the weekly quiz. No make-ups will be allowed on weekly quizzes, but I will drop your lowest quiz score at the end of the semester.

See www.utdallas.edu/~mrankin for quiz study questions.

Map Quiz: A map quiz will be administered in the first weeks of the semester. This quiz will test your knowledge of colonial administrative divisions in Latin America, major cities, and bodies of water. An exam guide will be posted on the course website. Quiz date is listed on the course schedule.

Exams: The exams in this class will be take-home exams. They will be made up of various ID terms that must be defined and tied to specific examples from the assigned readings. I will provide students with exam questions and thorough instructions in advance. Those instructions MUST be followed or a failing grade on the exam may result. Exams will be due on the days listed in the course schedule. They must be typed and uploaded to TURNITIN.com.

NOTE: You must use only the readings that have been assigned as part of your weekly quiz assignments to answer the exam questions. You may not use outside sources of any kind on the take-home exams and ABSOLUTELY NO direct quotes are allowed from any sources. Any use of outside sources and any direct quotations will be considered plagiarism and will result in a failing grade on the exam. Any and all cases of academic dishonesty will be reported immediately to the Judicial Affairs Office.

Grading Policy

The grading in this course is based on two exams, a map quiz, weekly quizzes, and class participation. The breakdown of the grading is as follows:

Midterm Exam	100 points
Final Exam	100 points
Map Quiz	50 points
Weekly Quizzes	100 points
Class Participation	100 points
Total	450 points

COURSE & INSTRUCTOR POLICIES

There is no formal attendance policy in this class, but I will distribute a sign-in sheet each day to help track class participation. Please keep in mind that it is not possible to “make-up” class participation. If you are not physically (and mentally) present in the classroom, it will affect your participation grade. Furthermore, past experience has proven that students who attend class regularly tend to earn higher grades. I frequently include information in my lectures that is not necessarily covered in your reading. It behooves you to be present to listen to lectures and participate in class. Finally, please refrain from disruptive behavior such as arriving late, departing early, talking, sleeping, reading the newspaper, etc. (I reserve the right to add to this list as needed).

No late assignments will be accepted and there is no make-up policy for in-class work. I will drop the lowest quiz score at the end of the semester. If you have missed a, that score will be dropped. There will be no exceptions to this rule.

All exams and the formal essay must be uploaded to TURNITIN.com by 11:59 pm on the due date. Class will not meet on the days that exams and the formal essay are due.

All assignments for this class are mandatory. Materials used in this course have been carefully selected for their scholarly value, but some audiences may take offense at topics of a sensitive nature. There will be NO substitutions of readings, films, documents, presentations, and/or other course requirements to suit personal preferences and/or sensitivities. There are NO EXCEPTIONS to this rule.
