Course Description

The purpose of this course is to serve as an introduction to the actors, institutions and processes of American government. Since this is an introductory course, we will cover many topics such as the Constitution, Congress, the Presidency, Voting and Elections, and Public Opinion. While we will not go into deep detail in any one particular topic, this class will provide you with the skills necessary to understand how our government works, and the ability to think critically and logically about its functions. We will also spend time linking current events in the U.S. Government with political science theories and historical trends.

The course syllabus is a general plan for the course; deviations announced to the class by the instructor may be necessary.

Objectives

- Students will be able to provide examples of and apply important theoretical and scholarly approaches to understanding state and national institutional behavior, citizen involvement and interaction between citizens and institutions of government.
- Students will be able to analyze and appreciate historical trends in development of government institutions and their constitutional foundations.
- Students will be able to identify, describe, and analyze various mechanisms of citizen political involvement.

Required Textbooks and Materials

Textbook: The Logic of American Politics, 6th Edition, Samuel Kernell, Gary C. Jacobson, Thad Kousser, and Lynn Vavreck

The book is also available for rent and as an ebook.

There are also two readings on electronic course reserves here: http://utdallas.docutek.com/eres/coursepage.aspx?cid=1560

I will also post selected readings to the UTD eLearning page in the Readings folder on the course homepage.

The dates for specific readings are detailed below. You will find it useful to have the reading done prior to the class where it is discussed. Students who expect to read all of the material the night before an exam will most likely receive a poor grade.

Assignments and Grading

Your grade will be based on the following:

Four in class non-cumulative exams each worth 22% of your grade for a total of 88%. The exams will be on September 25, October 18, November 8, and December 11. If you have scheduled a vacation, wedding, family reunion, or some other non-university sanctioned event for these days, I suggest you take another class. There is no final exam in this class.

NO MAKEUP EXAMS WILL BE GIVEN without proper documentation. Missing an exam without documentation will result in a zero and you will not have the opportunity to take the exam. If you are missing class for an excused absence you must let me know in advance. All students missing class for excused UTD related activities must turn in the appropriate documentation from your organization with the excused dates. If you miss an exam due to illness, you must provide proper documentation. Make-up exams will be scheduled by the TA or me when our schedules can accommodate them.

For exams, you must bring your UTD photo ID with you to class and I reserve the right to ask you to show this ID when you turn in your exams.

2. Nine quizzes, of which the highest six will count toward your final grade. The six highest scoring quizzes will be each worth 2% of your grade, for a total of 12% of your final grade. THERE ARE NO MAKEUP QUIZZES.

Quizzes are open-book and open-note, so you may refer to your textbook and your class notes when taking the quizzes. A quiz will typically cover one or two of the substantive topics on the syllabus. The quizzes are available on the eLearning course website under Exams/Assignments.

Please note the following:

- It is your responsibility to access and complete the quizzes before they expire, typically you will have one week to complete a quiz once it opens.
- Deadlines for completing the quizzes are listed below.
- Failure to take a quiz in the allotted time means receiving a zero for that exam.
- Once you open a quiz you will have two hours to complete it. If you begin a quiz and do not complete it in the allotted time then you will be scored based on the questions you have answered in the time given. Therefore, only begin the quizzes when you will have sufficient time to complete them.
- The questions and answers within a quiz are presented in a randomized order so taking the quiz with someone else will not be helpful. You should take the quizzes on your own and use them as an assessment of your mastery of the material.
- I am not responsible for your inability to access eLearning. Please give yourself plenty of time to complete the quizzes, as failure to take the quizzes before they expire will result in a zero.

Quiz schedule

Quiz 1: Sept. 4-10 Quiz 2: Sept. 11-17 Quiz 3: Sept. 18-24 Quiz 4: Oct. 2-8 Quiz 5: Oct. 9-15 Quiz 6: Oct. 23-29 Quiz 7: Oct. 30-Nov. 5 Quiz 8: Nov. 13-19 Quiz 9: Dec. 4-10

Grading Policy

The grading scale for this class is as follows: A+, 97 or higher; A, 93-96; A-, 90-92; B+, 87-89; B, 83-86; B-, 80-82; C+, 77-79; C, 73-76; C-, 70-72; D+, 67-69; D, 60-66; F, below 60.

There is no extra credit for this class. Please do not ask.

Course & Instructor Policies

I expect all students to behave professionally in this class. Please do not talk on your cell phone, text message, tweet, Facebook, play video games, snap chat, pinterest, or whatever new thing you kids do that I haven't heard of yet, etc. Although I do not take attendance, you are expected to attend class regularly. You will be held responsible for all material in the textbooks and in lectures, even if you miss a class. It is your responsibility to remain aware of when quizzes are due and to be sure they are completed on time. I recommend that you plan far enough in advance when studying for an examination to avoid unnecessary problems.

I DO NOT TOLERATE CHEATING
