Course Prerequisites, Co-requisites, and/or Other Restrictions

Students in BCOM 4350 must have already passed ACCT/BCOM 3311. You should have at least college-level writing skills and both written and oral proficiency in English.

Course Description

This course builds on BCOM 3311 by helping students work towards mastery of three critical communication competencies: business speaking, professional use of social media/technology in and for work, and the professional online presence. Students will gain experience engaging in many different kinds of oral communication for business, both individually and in teams.

Student Learning Objectives/Outcomes:

This course will help you:

- Develop the critical communication skills you need to make oral presentations, communicate interpersonally, work effectively in teams, and use technology professionally.
- Analyze differences in professional audiences/readers and make smart creative choices in your professional communication.
- Understand the importance of oral communication and develop/strengthen habits that will help you a more professional, mature, and independent professional.
- Increase your confidence as someone who can 'think on your feet' and adapt to complex business situations

Required Textbook and Materials

The required book is Guide to Presentations, 4th edition, by Lynne Russell and Mary Munter.

The required book can be found here: <http://goo.gl/54UsT> (You may purchase the hard copy at the UTD bookstore or rent the ebook)

Also, there are MANY required readings that can be found in the course schedule. These are posted in eLearning by the group presentation date.

Each student will also be required to create a Google account, if you don't already have one. This is so you can upload your video introduction to YouTube. You can do this here:

<https://accounts.google.com/SignUp>

1000 possible points

Extra Credit: Any extra credit points will be offered to the entire class and will not be part of the 1000 normal course points for the semester.

Team Evaluation Participation Points (50 points)

Your teammates will complete an evaluation of your involvement in the Group Reading Presentation and Current Event Presentation. You will receive the full 50 points if each member of your team says you fully contributed (25 points per assignment). If you do not fully contribute, you will receive no points or a prorated number of points.

In-Class Participation Points (50 points)

Class participation is highly encouraged during group presentations, current event presentations and other times. Quality of class contributions will be weighted more heavily than quantity. Frequent and valuable participants are those students who attend most of the classes, participate regularly in every class, and make significant contributions in each class attended. The instructor has the sole authority in assigning participation grades. Use of cell phones, texting, emailing, and surfing the internet are forbidden during class hours. The following criteria are a guideline for your participation grade. These criteria are crucial for your participation in current event and presentation discussions.

50/50 (excellent participation):

Participates regularly in every class attended, and makes at least one significant contribution in each class attended

40/50 (good participation):

Participates regularly in every class attended, and makes significant contributions in most of the classes

attended

30/50 (fair participation):

Participates regularly in most classes attended, and makes significant contributions in a few classes

20/50 (poor participation):

Participates in some of the classes attended, and makes significant contributions in one or two classes only 10/50 (very poor participation):

Participates in some of the classes attended, but makes no significant or insightful comments and contributions

0/50 (no participation):

Does not participate in any classes

Grading Policy

All work should also demonstrate the same professional and ethical standards expected of you in the workplace, including proofreading and editing carefully all work you submit in this class. Professionalism also means that you use appropriate source citation wherever and whenever necessary so that you avoid violations of copyright and academic honesty – even if those violations are inadvertent. By internalizing these skills now, you will give yourself an advantage as you head into the work place – not to mention keeping yourself out of trouble in school.

Grading Scale

I grade according to the grading scale:

A+: 98 and above: 980 points and above

A: 94-97.99- 940 to 979 points

A-: 90-93.99 - 900 to 939 points

The B and C scales follow along the same lines.

Business Communication Center

You are strongly encouraged to use the BCC located in the JSOM New Addition 12.106.

Visit <http://jindal.utdallas.edu/student-resources/business-communication-center/> to make an appointment, find resources for business writing, learn how to use APA to cite materials in your writing, find out how to check out a video camera, and learn how to strengthen your speaking and PowerPoint design. Keep in mind that there can be a wait when major assignments are due. Planning ahead and making an appointment will help you make more effective use of your time.

Attendance

We all have things happen so you get 2 free absences.

Each absence after that = 10 points off your final grade. However, if you miss one of the mandatory

POP presentation days at the end of the semester, you lose 40 points per absence off your final grade.

It is your responsibility to make sure you are counted present in each class that you attend. You must be present for your group presentation to receive any credit for that assignment. You also must be in class to take that day's reading quiz.

Course Policies

Late Work

Deadlines in the professional world are a serious matter. Missed deadlines mean lost contracts, delayed product releases, skyrocketing expenses, and, in some cases, the loss, quite literally, of millions of dollars in revenue. Missed deadlines also compromise professional reputations and careers. Work that does not meet the assignment's constraints is unprofessional and creates administrative headaches. "I had technical problems" is not a valid excuse for late work, so plan accordingly. For these reasons, late or incomplete work is not acceptable in this course EXCEPT in the most extreme and unlikely of circumstances.

Individual Extra Credit

Other than extra credit opportunities offered to the entire class, I do not curve individual items, nor do I offer "extra credit" work or "special consideration" to allow individual students a chance to raise their grade. If a personal situation arises during the semester that may affect your classroom performance, please talk to me sooner rather than later. If you wait until the end of the semester, I won't be able to help you. I can work with you more easily if you speak to me when the situation arises.

Classroom Citizenship

In keeping with this course's professional communication mandate, students are expected to use every opportunity in the course to practice communicating in a civil and professional manner.

Technology Requirements

Reliable and frequent internet connectivity is indispensable – not having internet access will make your group projects more difficult and will not serve as a valid excuse for shortcomings. Get into the habit of checking both eLearning and your UTD email for assignments and announcements. I post many class announcements in eLearning. Failure to check your UTD email account, errors in forwarding email, and email bounced from over-quota mailboxes are not acceptable excuses for missing course or project-related email or deadlines.

Classroom and Equipment Use Policies

No laptops may be used in the classroom unless you have cleared it with me first.

Additional policies can be found here: <http://coursebook.utdallas.edu/syllabus-policies>

These descriptions and timelines are subject to change at the discretion of the Professor.
