Grading Information

Online Homework	OHW (online homework) will be completed out of class using an Internet-based system. OHW will typically be due 6 days past the lecture it covers at 11:59pm, but you should check the schedule and mailing list to make sure. You will receive zeros for missed OHW.
Written Homework	WHW (written homework) will posted to the course webpage. You must download and print the WHW as described on the course webpage. The due date will be printed on the WHW. WHW must be turned in at the beginning of lecture on the due date. Turning in WHW at any other time or place will be penalized . Turning in WHW late will be penalized . You will receive zeros for missed WHW. Some WHW will be graded out of 10, and others will be graded as completion (and you will not be informed in advance).
Quizzes and Exams	Quizzes will be conducted at the Testing Center. Some quizzes will be graded out of 10, and others will be graded as completion (and you will not be informed in advance). Exams will be conducted Monday nights according the registrar's schedule. You will receive zeros for missed quizzes and exams.
Attendance & Participation	AP (attendance and participation) is mandatory and will be measured. Your AP record may be considered when assigning your final course grade. If you are failing the course and (in the instructor's estimation) you are deemed non-attending or non-participating then you will be assigned a grade of NF. It is probably in your interest to withdraw rather than receive an NF . See the following link for more information concerning NF grades (and grades generally). https://catalog.utdallas.edu/2016/undergraduate/policies/academic
