Grading Policy

All work should also demonstrate the same professional and ethical standards expected of you in the workplace, including proofreading and editing carefully all work you submit in this class. Professionalism also means that you use appropriate source citation wherever and whenever necessary so that you avoid violations of copyright and academic honesty – even if those violations are inadvertent. 100-97% = A+ , 97-93 = A , 92-90 = A- , 89-87 = B+ , 86-83 = B , 82-80 = B- , 79-77 = C+ , 76-73 = C , 72-70 = C-

COURSE POLICIES

A number of course policies have been implemented and are enforced to ensure quality of education and fairness. It is your responsibility to be familiar and comply with each policy. If you have any questions about the policies please let your professor know.

Attendance

Class begins promptly and lasts for 50 minutes. I will take roll at some point during class to see if you are there or not. If you are not there and/or do not respond when I call your name then you will be marked absent for the day.

People who come in late disrupt the class and make it difficult for us to accomplish our goals. Entering a room late is also unprofessional and rude. Be thoughtful. Be polite. Please note that arriving late and/or leaving early without clearing it with me first will cut your day's points in half.

You will receive one free absence but every absence after that is worth ten points, which will be deducted from your final grade. Receiving an excused absence means you will not be penalized for excessive absences; it does not mean you are relieved from responsibility or are entitled to turning in the work or making up a missed assignment without penalty. If you have a university-approved excused absences, email me documentation (a note from your doctor, etc.) of that absence.

Late Work

In everyday life people must learn to cope with a variety of deadlines and plan their work and personal schedules around them. Deadlines in the professional world are a serious matter. Missed deadlines mean lost contracts, delayed product releases, skyrocketing expenses, and, in some cases, the loss, quite literally, of millions of dollars in revenue. Missed deadlines also compromise professional reputations and careers. Work that does not meet the assignment's constraints is unprofessional and creates administrative headaches.

It is your responsibility to submit any due assignments to TurnItIn.com before the deadline. Understand how TurnItIn.com works. Double-check immediately after you submit a document to make sure that it is in the system. "I had technical problems" is not a valid excuse for late work, so plan accordingly. Late submissions will be docked 1 percent per hour late. For example, a paper submitted 39 minutes late would lose 1 percent. A paper 100 hours late receives no credits. Please submit late work to the assignment's Turnitin dropbox.

TurnItIn

Most assignments in this class will be submitted through Turnitin.com. Many students make the mistake of uploading the paper and thinking it's done. There is a second step, which is to confirm submission. TurnItIn will confirm a submission with an on-screen digital receipt that contains a Submission ID. If the second step isn't confirmed, the paper will not be submitted, and there will be no digital receipt. If there is a technical issue with your assignment (e.g., I do not see a submission on your end), I will ask for your Submission ID number as proof of the submission. If you do not have this, you will not get credit for turning in the assignment. I strongly urge you to take a screenshot of or write down your Submission ID for every assignment you submit.

Grade Disputes

I am always willing to discuss your grades with you. Upon receiving your grade you need to wait 24 hours before contacting me so that you take time to think over your questions, compare it to the assignment and rubric, and read my comments. To challenge a grade, you must schedule a meeting with me within one week of the assignment being returned to you. Prior to our meeting, you will email me your concerns in writing (this can be included in the same email you send to schedule a meeting). Please note that a challenge may result in grades being raised or lowered. If you want to meet not to challenge your grade but just gain a clearer understanding behind my grading, I am happy to do that as well.

Individual Extra Credit

Other than extra credit opportunities offered to the entire class, I do not curve individual items, nor do I offer "extra credit" work or "special consideration" to allow individual students a chance to raise their grade. If a personal situation arises during the semester that may affect your classroom performance, please talk to me sooner rather than later. If you wait until the end of the semester, I won't be able to help you. I can work with you more easily if you speak to me when the situation arises.

Handwritten Assignments

Unless I specify it in the assignment, do not turn in handwritten assignments. If you submit a handwritten assignment, you will receive no credit for the assignment.

Participation

I expect students to come prepared and participate in the discussion and activities for the day. In keeping with the professional communication mandate of this course, students are expected to use every opportunity in the course to practice communicating in a civil and professional manner. You are allowed to use laptops in this class but please put away all cellphones. If your laptop becomes a distraction in the class, I reserve the right to ask you to put it away.

Technology Requirements

Reliable and frequent internet connectivity is indispensable – not having internet access will make your group projects more difficult and will not serve as a valid excuse for shortcomings. Get into the habit of checking both eLearning and your UTD email for assignments and announcements. I post many class announcements in eLearning. Failure to check your UTD email account, errors in forwarding email, and email bounced from over-quota mailboxes are not acceptable excuses for missing course or project- related email or deadlines.

Email Use

The University of Texas at Dallas recognizes the value and efficiency of communication between faculty/staff and students through electronic mail. At the same time, email raises some issues concerning security and the identity of each individual in an email exchange. All official student email correspondence will be sent only to a student's UT Dallas email address and UT Dallas will only consider email requests originating from an official UT Dallas student email account. This allows the University to maintain a high degree of confidence in the identity of each individual's corresponding via email and the security of the transmitted information. The University of Texas at Dallas furnishes each student with a free email account that is to be used in all communication with university personnel. The Office of Information Technology provides a method for students to have their UT Dallas mail forwarded to other email accounts. To activate a student UT Dallas computer account and forward email to another account, go to <http://netid.utdallas.edu>.

AccessAbility Services

It is the policy and practice of The University of Texas at Dallas to make reasonable accommodations for students with properly documented disabilities. However, written notification from the Office of Student AccessAbility (OSA) is required. If you are eligible to receive an accommodation and would like to request it for this course, please discuss it with your professor and allow one week advance notice. Students who have questions about receiving accommodations, or those who have, or think they may have, a disability (mobility, sensory, health, psychological, learning, etc.) are invited to contact OSA for a confidential discussion. OSA is located in the Student Services Building, SSB 3.200. They can be reached by phone at 972-883-2098, or by email at studentaccess@utdallas.edu.
